Soldiers for Hope, Inc. respects you and your privacy. The information we gather is so that we can properly label the artist drawing and to contact you if your drawing has been selected. We will in no way sell, rent or pass your information onto others. If the drawing is chosen the only thing that will appear online is your child’s name, age, title and state.

Note: There are only so many drawings we can use in our gallery because they take up a lot of server space. Even if your drawing is not selected for our online gallery, please know that it WILL be sent to a soldier overseas.
